

Hit the Road

Book Battle Blog discussion guide

1. What are the main differences between your generation and your grandparent's generation that are barriers to relating to each other?
2. What can teens do to foster a positive inter-generational relationship with the elders in their family or community?
3. If you are lucky enough to have a grandparent and/or great-grandparents in your life, what do you treasure most about them?
4. Can you imagine sustaining friendships that you have now in high school over the decades? What would your friends be like fifty years from now?

Book Battle Blog question

Look through today's St. Petersburg Times and find two photos, one of a teen and one of a senior citizen. After examining both photos, determine why these two groups are sometimes leery of each other. What assumptions or stereotypes do both groups have for each other, based on appearance, that might prevent interaction?
