

Why won't the Democratic National Committee and the Florida Democratic Party support Barack Obama's call for change in our communities?

A FEW FACTS

■ IF BARACK OBAMA WINS FLORIDA'S 27 ELECTORAL VOTES, HE WILL BECOME THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

■ The Democratic National Committee is spending $20 MILLION for its Hispanic voter outreach effort
— Wall Street Journal/Washington Wire, 7/28/08

■ $6.5 MILLION in advertising has already been spent in all major Florida markets [on Obama's behalf]
— Radio and TV Business Report, 8/12/08

■ The Democratic National Committee and the Florida Democratic Party have purchased NO Black newspaper ads, and have run NO Black newspaper ads, and have run radio ads on a few Black-owned or Black-formatted radio stations statewide.

■ The Democratic National Committee and the Florida Democratic Party have budgeted NOTHING for registration efforts by Black community-based or non-profit organizations.

■ The Democratic National Committee and the Florida Democratic Party have budgeted NOTHING for get-out-the-vote efforts by Black community-based or non-profit organizations.

TELL DEMOCRATS it's time to stand up with Black Floridians. They must do what it takes to get out Florida's Black vote. It's now or never.
