Investigation:

On 5/7/09, writer received information regarding this case from CPI Auza. He advised that complaint alleges that Mr. Alege called students (male) in to his office to discuss their grades. He then tells them to remove their shoes and socks and squeezes their toes. CPI Auza advised that he was at King High School now. CPI Auza advised that five students said he mentors them. When they get D's and F's, they remove their shoes and Mr. Alege pops their toes. One pop toe for every D or F. If grades are good, he will high-five them.

On 5/11/09, Mr. Alege was mirandized and did not give a statement.

This incident occurred last school year. Four parents signed a Waiver of Prosecution. One parent wanted to pursue charges.

On 5/11/09, writer spoke with Deputy Hymes. She advised that she contacted the SAO and was told that the incident did not meet level of Battery. She Unfounded report.

On 6/22/09, writer spoke with CPI Auza. He advised that he closed his case with Some Indicators for threatened harm.

No further information.

This report is being forwarded to Linda A. Kipley, General Manager of Professional Standards, for review and any action deemed necessary.
